VALUTICO

Success Story

EXPERT OPINIONS

Our process is now more efficient and therefore faster. The large number of peers available not only enables extremely thorough multiples-based methods, but also helpful plausibility checks in financial forecasts.

Roland Pfeffer Managing Partner, Prodinger Group, Austria

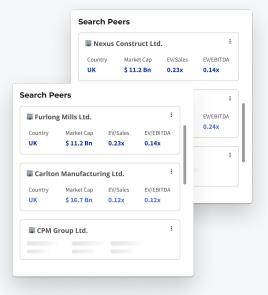

Prodinger Group is a large financials services firm in Austria with over 200 team members across 8 locations, focused not only on tax advisory work but also on broad management consulting and other growth-related professional services. Together with its customers, the Prodinger Group fearlessly pursues new paths in corporate management and corporate development.

PRODINGER GROUP RELY ON VALUTICO TO:

- Process and reinforce their models with market data.
- Benefit from additional plausibility checks in financial forecasts.
- Overall, to overcome several challenges they faced during M&A engagements.

Fast access to a simplified process to find and apply the data they need.

Prodinger Group can identify useful peers from public comparables and precedent transactions.
